About me

Full-stack web developer. Experience in React, Redux, NodeJs, Express, PostgreSQL among other technologies. Having participated in a project with other six people allowed me to develop important social skills such as empathy, leadership, resilience and team work, as well as enhance previous ones like creativity and dedication.

Specialized in Front-end with React and Redux.

Experience

SoyHenry's Final Project (2022-2023)

I was part of a team of seven, where I was able to develop leadership and empathy skills.

Education

SoyHenry (2022-2023)

I was part of SoyHenry's bootcamp, a theoretical-practical course of more than 800 hours of JavaScript, React, Redux, Express, PostgreSQL, Sequelize, and other technologies.

Projects

Full-stack web developer - The Doge

Academic experience (SoyHenry bootcamp 2023)
